

Gentle Rain

You're so dangerous, you're so hot.
You're so beautiful, that's what I'm not.
You shine so bright as a light.
You're a celestial, yes, that's what you are.

Come on let me be near you, come on let me feel you -
Ooooh, gentle beam.

C'mon let me be near you, come on let me hear you -
Oh ho ha, like a gentle rain.

You're never nervous, you're never jealous.
You're never weak + you're acting always strong.
You give it to me like the sky to the Earth, the water just in time.
Jaodedldedldideay, ... No drought with you, right.

And through the sun mirrows your divinity.
I follow you till we reach eternal light,
show me this life from the other side - your side,
my gentle gain.

Solo

Your fire eyes invite me to a trip to your inner mountain heights.
What a gentle light I can see in there, what a taste, what a delicious atmosphere.
You're not that dangerous, but you're so hot.
You're so beautiful, that's what I'm not - some say so.

The wind couldn't follow us.
And no shadow, no shadow, can reach us, too. Being slow or being fast with you, n'n n no no no boo.

One look into your eyes, one trip with your soul.
Oh oh oh oh, much boon and no bane.
Ooooh, my gentle rain ... ohoho, my gentle rain.

Come on let me be near you, come on let me feel you - yet another time.
You are so beautiful, your so beautiful, you are so beautiful like a gentle rain.
