

No Priest

I don't want to preach, we're not in a temple + I'm no priest at all.

I don't want to teach or make any rare or typical proposals for you.

Don't take me cynical, but I'm not here to impel a political miracle.

So you see, it barely means anything to me ... yeah.

Cause I'm just a man with no special thought.

That's it. I'm just a man with no special thought.

Ain't got no answers, no, ain't got no questions, no, no, I got nothing to hide.

Marhaban, awaddu qala al arabiya, hatta naltaqi qariban wa ma as-salama. Salam!

Sono contento della mia vita. Shalom, we need peace on Earth.

But I don't want to preach, we're not in a temple + I'm no priest at all.

I just say no as to serving as a patron in this world's jungle - here + now.

I'm just a man with no special thought.

I'm just a sweet little thin man with no special thought.

Don't take me cynical, but I don't bring along that sort of a miracle.

The only thing that I could say, I can handle things my own way.

Consider, reflect, just ponder, I guess the outcome will be no wonder.

I don't want to preach, we're not in a temple + I'm no priest at all.

This is no hoax, and that's nothing else but one of these typical proposals for you.

Straight ahead, the second left, [there] you might find love for ever.

I'm just a man with no special thought. I'm just a being with no world changing special thought.

Straight ahead, the second left, might be deep down in hell, we all together.

I don't think so, but I really don't know. Cause I'm just a man with no special insight.

I'm no priest, even if I myself or you just want me to.

Straight ahead, the second left, there you shall find rest + peace for ever.

The only thing that I could say I can handle things my own way

Consider, reflect, just ponder, I guess the outcome will be no wonder.
